On form submission, Browser sends the server a POST request

Meanwhile, Javascript code in the browser contains an event handler that prevents redirect, adds the note and re-renders the page. Because the new note is sent to the server via HTTP POST request of content-type JSON, the data is parsed.

Server responds with 201 status (fulfilled and created)